for the way you work and live

 Staples™

TheLoop works FOR me

Dr. Stephen Covey once said “Strength lies in differences, not similarities.” Diversity brings so much to Worklife. It makes our teams stronger. And as the way we work evolves, that’s more important than ever.

In this issue of The Loop™, you’ll discover products thoughtfully designed for every work style, with a selection that’s as diverse as your team. Whether you’re choosing for yourself or your people, you’ll find ways to drive productivity, connectivity and inspiration through individuality and personal expression.

At Staples, we’re proud to offer such a wide assortment of innovative products. So go ahead and browse. Then share it with your people and see what works for them.
